INTRODUCTION

The primary purpose of the Mississippi non-resident hunter survey is to establish annual statewide and district estimates of hunter effort and harvest for each game species. These estimates provide trend data which allows Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks (MDWFP) Wildlife Division staff to monitor changes in harvest and effort through time. The secondary purpose is to measure non-resident hunters' participation patterns, attitudes towards hunting and wildlife, and opinions towards agency programs and wildlife management tools. When interpreting this data, it is important to consider current wildlife management programs, habitat changes and availability, land use practices, species abundance, and the social and economic climate of the state.

Since 1994, a self-administered mail survey has been used to obtain total harvest, average daily kill, average seasonal harvest, and total man-days hunted for each game species by non-residents. The estimates obtained for each of these categories are precise because of the large sample size used, however, because mail surveys contain sampling, response, and nonresponse biases the accuracy of the estimates are always of concern to researchers (Filion 1980). Nevertheless, similar methodologies used to conduct the mail survey over time help to hold constant these biases and the estimates derived from the survey should provide adequate estimates for monitoring trends in hunter harvest and effort.

The primary objective of the mail survey for the 2006-07 hunting season was to obtain a reliable set of statewide non-resident effort and harvest estimates for each game species in Mississippi. The secondary objective was to provide district estimates. The third objective was to obtain demographic information from non-respondents. No effort was made to interpret the data presented here. The purpose of this publication is to compile existing information for future reference and to help guide future management decisions.

METHODS

The sampling frame for the survey consisted of holders of any non-resident hunting license (Types 140, 141, 142, 143, and 144) purchased during the 2006-2007 license year. A random sample of 3,000 license holders was selected to participate in this study from the 34,646 non-resident licenses processed from July 1, 2006 – June 30, 2007.

The survey process followed the Total Design Method (TDM) prescribed by Dillman (1978). This methodology pays particular attention to detail, persistence, and takes a personal approach to obtaining a response. This is accomplished, in part, by using personalized letters and envelopes processed with laser printers to simulate a first class mailing to differentiate it from “junk mail”. The TDM uses a series of five mail-outs to help increase response rate: 1) A pre-letter informing the individual that they have been selected for a survey of Mississippi hunters, 2) Eight days later an introductory letter, questionnaire (APPENDIX A), and postage-paid business reply envelope (i.e., a complete packet) were sent; 3) Ten days after the second mailing a post card that was sent to all hunters in the survey. The purpose of the post card was to remind hunters about the survey and to thank those whom had already returned a completed questionnaire. A phone number was provided on the post card in case the recipient had not received or misplaced their questionnaire, so they could request another be sent; 4) Twenty-one days after the postcard mailing, a second complete packet was sent to all hunters who had not yet responded, and 5) Twenty-eight days after the second complete packet was sent, a third complete mailing was sent to all hunters who had not yet responded. Actual correspondence can be found in APPENDIX B. All surveys were numbered using a bar coding system printed on clear adhesive labels. When surveys were returned to Mississippi State University, the bar codes were scanned into a computer file and assigned with a “returned” status; this prevented respondents from receiving another mailing.

Data entry involved entering data from the surveys into the computer using a Microsoft Access data entry screen that had been previously developed. First, non-numeric responses in the survey were numerically coded for preparation for data entry. After all responses were converted into a numeric framework, responses from the surveys were data entered. The responses to the last question of the survey, which was open-ended, were typed into an MS Access file so comments could be queried by agency staff.

Effort and harvest estimates and their standard errors for each species were calculated for total kill, average seasonal kill per hunter, proportion of licensed hunters, total licensed hunters, proportion of hunters who were successful, total man-days spent hunting, average days field per hunter, and the average daily kill. These estimates were calculated both on a statewide and district basis. Calculations were based on statistical programs originally developed by Steffen (1981) for mainframe computing, modified as necessary for desktop computing using SAS software.

RESULTS

A total of 3,000 questionnaires were mailed to nonresident hunters. There were a total of 996 useable questionnaires returned by hunters. Useable questionnaires included those who indicated they hunted at least one species one or more days during the 2006-07 season (n=790), and those who indicated they "DID NOT HUNT" on their returned survey (n=206). Since harvest estimates are extrapolated to all hunter license holders, those who indicated they did not hunt were included in the database as hunting zero days and harvesting zero animals for each species. Questionnaires were checked for the completeness of responses where it was found that fifteen individuals indicated their refusal to participate and two individuals were reported as being deceased. When non-deliverables (n=413) were excluded from consideration, an effective response rate of 38.8% was obtained.

Statewide expansions were calculated based on the 34,646 non-resident hunting licenses sold and accounted for by June 30, 2006. There were 34,646 individuals licensed to hunt small game and 24,084 of these license holders also were eligible to pursue big game (deer and turkey) in Mississippi during the 2006-2007 hunting season.

The expanded statewide summaries of the non-resident total harvest, average daily kill, average seasonal harvest, percent of successful hunters, total man-days, average days hunted in the season, total number of hunters, and percent of total licenses that hunted are provided in Table 1 for all game species included in the survey. Table 2 provides the expanded statewide estimates of total harvest and the variability of these (standard error and 95 percent confidence limits) for all game species surveyed.

Tables 3-8 summarize non-resident small game hunting on a statewide and district basis. Waterfowl hunting is summarized in Tables 9-13. Tables 14-17 summarize fox (red and gray), bobcat and coyote hunting. Statewide and district summaries of deer (buck and doe data from archery, primitive weapon, and gun seasons) and turkey hunting (spring and fall) are provided in Tables 18-26. Table 27 summarizes district and statewide estimates for feral hog. Tables 28-33 summarize non-resident demographic characteristics.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This compilation would not have been possible without the efforts and cooperation of many people. Many present and former MDWFP personnel from all divisions provided direct or indirect assistance. MDWFP personnel deserving special recognition are: Ben Sessums and the print shop crew for producing survey instruments, Curtis Thornhill and his staff for providing license information, and Randy Spencer & Dave Godwin for serving as liaisons between MDWFP and Mississippi State University.

Dear John:

I am writing to ask for your help in a study of Mississippi hunters. Each year I conduct the enclosed annual hunter harvest and attitude survey for the Wildlife Bureau of the Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks (MDWFP). We conduct this study to determine the demographic characteristics of hunters and the amount of game they harvested in Mississippi during the previous hunting season, and hunters attitudes toward important wildlife issues.

You were selected to participate in this study if you purchased a hunting or sportsman license in either the 2006-07 and/or 2007-08 hunting season. The enclosed survey is designed to tell us about your game harvest in the 2006-2007 (September 1, 2006 – May 1, 2007) and 2007-08 (September 1, 2007 – May 1, 2008) Mississippi hunting season. Please complete both harvest questions if you hunted in both years, or fill out only one if you did not hunt the other year. But, if you bought a hunting license but did not hunt in either year, please write “DID NOT HUNT” on the front cover and send it back to us. That will prevent you from receiving follow-up letters from us, and help us to complete the study.

In addition to harvest questions, MDWFP would like to know more about how well they are doing in meeting your needs in terms of wildlife information and education. MDWFP values your perspective and has funded this study to help understand how they can improve communication with hunters. You are one of a small number of license holders selected to participate in this study. It is important that YOU and no one else complete the questionnaire. Your responses are important to us whether you hunt often or just occasionally. All responses will be strictly confidential, and you will not be identified with your answers. Your answers will be grouped with other respondents in a non-identifiable manner. The survey has an identification number for mailing purposes only. This is so we can remove your name from the mailing list once we receive it.

After you complete the questionnaire, please return it to Mississippi State University in the postage-paid, business reply envelope as soon as possible. If you should have any questions about this research project, please feel free to contact me at Mississippi State University at (662) 325-4153. Dear John:

About three weeks ago, we sent you a survey of Mississippi hunters. As of today, we have not yet received your completed questionnaire. If you have recently returned your survey, please accept our thanks. The comments of people who have already returned their questionnaires included a wide variety of answers. However, the success and accuracy of our study depends on you and the others who have not yet responded. We ask for your help in making sure our results are representative of all hunters in Mississippi.

In case you misplaced your survey, we've enclosed another. The survey is designed to tell us about your general hunting activity and game harvest during the 2006-2007 and 2007-08 hunting seasons, and how well MDWFP is doing at meeting your wildlife information and education needs. Study results will help MDWFP in wildlife management plans, and understand how to better communicate with hunters. Although the survey is completely voluntary, we hope that you will take the 15-30 minutes necessary to provide your input and be a part of the wildlife management process. If you did not hunt in the 2006-2007 nor 2007-08 hunting season, please write DID NOT HUNT on the front of the questionnaire and mail it back to us so we can take your name off the mailing list. If you hunted in one or both years, please complete the appropriate harvest questions.

All responses will be strictly confidential, and you will not be identified with your answers. Your answers will be grouped with other respondents in a non-identifiable manner. The survey has an identification number for mailing purposes only. This is so we can remove your name from the mailing list once it is received. After you complete the questionnaire, please return it to Mississippi State University in the postage-paid, business reply envelope as soon as possible. If you should have any questions about this research project, please feel free to contact me at Mississippi State University at (662) 325-4153. Thank you in advance for your cooperation and good luck during the upcoming hunting season.

Sincerely,

Dear John:

During the last two months, I have sent you several mailings involving a survey on Mississippi hunters. As of today, I have not yet received your completed questionnaire. If you have recently returned your survey, please accept my thanks.

The Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries, and Parks values your perspective of wildlife management and has funded this study to understand how to communicate better with hunters in the state. This study is drawing to a close, and this is the last contact that will be made with you. The success and accuracy of our study depends on you and the others who have not yet responded. If for some reason you prefer not to respond, please let me know by returning the blank questionnaire in the enclosed business reply envelope. Or, if you did not hunt in the 2006-2007 nor 2007-08 hunting season, please write DID NOT HUNT on the front of the questionnaire and mail it back to us so we can take your name off the mailing list.

If you choose to respond, the survey should take you no longer than 15-30 minutes to complete. Your responses will be strictly confidential, and you will not be identified with your answers. The survey has an identification number for mailing purposes only. Your answers will be grouped with other respondents in a non-identifiable manner, and there is no way for anyone outside of my laboratory to determine your identity. I will destroy the name and address list at the end of the study.

After you complete the questionnaire, please return it to Mississippi State University in the postage-paid, business reply envelope as soon as possible. If you did not hunt waterfowl, please write that on the front cover and send it back to me so I can take your name off of the list. If you should have any questions about this research project, please feel free to contact me at Mississippi State University at (662) 325-4153. For additional information regarding human participation in research, please feel free to contact the MSU Regulatory Compliance Office at (662) 325-5220. Thank you in advance for your cooperation and good luck during the upcoming hunting season.

Sincerely,
